A horse owned by O. P. Davis, a livery stable keeper of Lowell, became frightened about 8.30 on Monday night while being led behind a light buggy from this town to Lowell. The accident occurred on Cogswell Hill, and it was thought by the driver to have been caused by someone throwing a stone at the animal. It reared and plunged, striking against the carriage, cutting its fore legs considerably, besides nearly demolishing the turnout. The driver had the wounds dressed and procured another carriage at the stable of William H. Higgins.

There are now only about twenty-five tickets left for the trolley ride to Salisbury Beach, Sunday. Two special cars have been engaged and those who wish to go should get their tickets at once. James Napier and Edward Trefry have the affair in charge. Cars leave at 8.30.

Mr. Fuller held it down until assistance arrived, when the horse was aided to rise. It is a singular fact that nothing was broken.

Schools Open Monday.

A report has been circulated throughout the town to the effect that the public schools would not open on Monday as the work which is being done on the buildings would not be finished. This statement is erroneous, as neither the superintendent of schools, Corwin F. Palmer, nor any member of the board made this statement. Mr. Palmer wishes it stated that all the schools will open Monday morning at the usual time. There will be a little inconvenience for a few days, but not enough to cause the closing of the schools.

Charlie A., a local horse owned by N. B. Abbott and driven by Mr. O'Leary of Lawrence, won the last race of the trot at the riding park in the latter city on Labor Day. Much rivalry exists between lovers of horse flesh in Lawrence and the meet of Monday served to bring out many fast ones. Charlie A. is considered one of the finest and his feat on Labor Day left no doubt in the minds of backers that he is a fast horse.

The seventy-sixth year at Abbot Academy will open next Thursday, September 15, at 9 o'clock. Consumption

The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected consumption."

People are learning that consumption is a curable disease. It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.

At the faintest suspicion of consumption get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion and begin regular doses.

The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has, in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.

Neglected consumption does not exist where Scott's Emulsion is.

Prompt use of Scott's Emulsion checks the disease while it can be checked.

ON A TRELLIS.

Opinion differs among the friends of Bliss Carman as to whether the well-known poet and litterateur is 6 feet 3 or 6 feet 5 inches in height. Yet far from being sensitive on the subject, Carman tells this story on himself.

During a recent visit to Washington he was introduced to J. W. Riley by a mutual friend on Pennsylvania ave. The Hoosier poet is not so well versed in the gentle art of being tall as is his contemporary, and according to Carman, as Riley switched his quid from one cheek to the other and surveyed him much as a countryman viewing a skyscraper, he remarked:—

"Well, by gum! Your parents must have trained you on a trellis."

Be sure and see our dress goods before you buy. We can save you just 1-3 at Farr's Remnant store, 35 Appleton street, Lawrence.

AROUND ESSEX COUNTY.

By presence of mind, Thomas Frost, one of the crew of the fishing boat, Pearl, saved himself from burning to death, in Pigeon Cove, Thursday afternoon. With his clothing in flames, he jumped overboard, but he could not swim and was rescued from drowning by his companions on the boat.

The new Peabody High schoolhouse is finished after two years. Last week it was turned over to the town with informal ceremonies held in the new building. It stands on the Franklin Osborne lot on Central street, which was purchased for $11,400. The total amount expended on lot and building is $105,000.

A Massachusetts official who is familiar with the plans for future harbor work in this state says that after the present improvements on Sutton river are finished, new work will follow. What is to be done at the expiration of the present work is to make a boat canal from Gloucester harbor through Squam river to the north side of Cape Ann.

A gang of tramps broke into a freight car at Magnolia station last week securing about $8 worth of tobacco. The men were found about the car by the crew of the night freight when the train arrived there, and were committed to jail. At the time it was not known that any theft had been committed, it being supposed that the men were either seeking a place to sleep or a chance to board a freight so as to get away from the locality.

COMMERCE and INDUSTRY

Commercial.

Another Exposition Ship.

Another American scheme to capture oriental trade is projected by President Hill of the Great Northern and a group of Pacific coast exporters. About Nov. 15 an ocean steamer will sail from Seattle laden with samples of American product and, after visiting Japanese and Chinese ports, will return by way of India and the Pacific islands.

Woman Heads Vast Business.

The death of William Weightman, Philadelphia's wealthiest man, leaving his entire fortune of $50,000,000 or more to his only surviving daughter, Anne, widow of Robert J. C. Walker, has not only made her the richest woman in the world, but has placed her in personal charge of the world's greatest chemical plant. The great firm of Powers & Weightman went on its way without a jar by means of the superb organization which its founder had perfected years ago. This house has controlled the chemical market of the world since war times. For several months prior to Mr. Weightman's death Mrs. Walker was in training for this business responsibility.

Big Railroad Freight War.

The announcement that railroads, headed by the Union Pacific, had reduced freight rates on wire and nails between Chicago and Colorado points from 70 cents a hundred to 45 cents, which went into effect Aug. 26, was believed to be the beginning of the steel trust's war on the Colorado Fuel and Iron company for the purpose of absorbing it. The trust gauntlet has been taken up by the Missouri Pacific, which is in touch with the Colorado concern, by cutting the wire and nail rates to 29 cents a hundred between Pueblo and Missouri river points. It was believed that these cuts were the beginning of a widespread rate war between the Gould and Harriman systems and including other products.

The Erie's Falling Off.

The preliminary statement of the Erie railroad shows that the gross earnings for the last fiscal year were $45,201,163, a decrease of $629,250. This was due to increasing expenses in running and taxes, besides extensive improvements. A 4 per cent dividend was paid on first preferred stock.

Profit Sharing Plan Off.

The decline in gross earnings of the United States Steel corporation is expected to seriously affect the profit sharing plan begun for employees in 1902. There will not be enough surplus to permit the payment of the lowest percentage, but officials say that the plan will be resumed when earnings are better.

Big Mercantile Agency Fails.

The International Mercantile agency, a $3,000,000 concern, incorporated in 1902 and operated on the same lines as Dun's and Bradstreet's, went into the hands of a receiver Aug. 23. Thomas N. McCauley, the former president, has brought suit, alleging that the concern owes him $54,000, while a bill in equity filed in the United States circuit court charges him with converting $1,200,000 to his own use and thus forcing the agency into bankruptcy.

Labor.

Tailors Against Socialism.

The United Garment Workers of America, just before the end of their recent annual convention at Buffalo, voted down, by a large majority, a resolution committing the organization to Socialism. The next convention will be held at Toronto, Canada.

Government Bars Out Strikers.

The bricklayers, who struck on the army war college building at Washington several weeks ago because a nonunion negro workman was employed, were notified that their names had been dropped from the rolls and that it would be necessary for them to pass the civil service test before they could again become eligible for employment.

Accused Labor Leader Quits.

Philip Weinselmer, head of the Building Trades alliance at New York, resigned last week for fear that his being arrested on a charge of bribe taking might injure the cause of labor. William P. Nason of the Marble Cutters' union was elected president of the alliance, and this change was believed to foreshadow a speedy adjustment of the building controversy. Arrangements were at once made for conferences with the builders.

Industrial.

Rich Gold Strike in Japan.

On government lands in Iwate province, Japan, the discovery of gold mines capable of an annual yield of $15,000,000 and a total of $500,000,000 is officially confirmed.

Alternating Electric Equipment.

The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company of Pittsburgh has begun the construction of apparatus to equip two electric lines with the single phase alternating current system connecting points in Indiana and Ohio. These will be the first lines in this country to employ this system.

New Wool Cleaning System.

Consul Pike at Zittau, Germany, reports the issuance of German patents to a company having new methods and machinery for a dry process of degreasing wool. This process is based on the use of infusorial earth as an absorbent. This substance is applied to the wool with a powerful air current so as to dry the fiber evenly throughout. The wool fibers thus cleaned retain their natural qualities as to strength, elasticity and waviness.

SOCIOLOGICAL

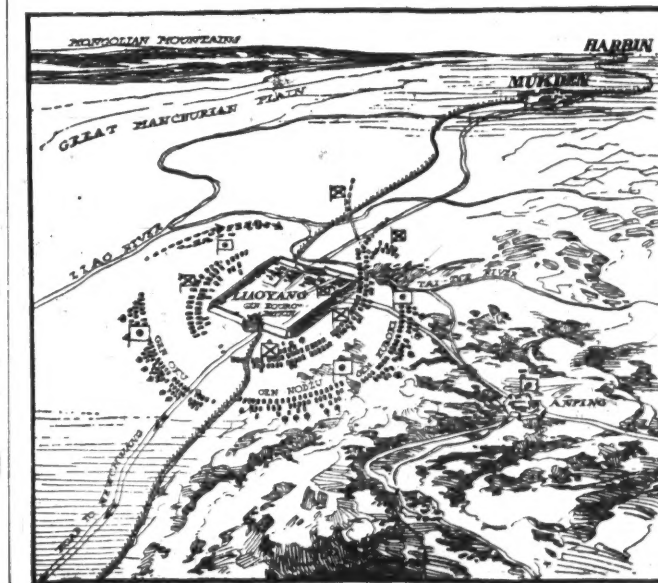

Midweek Pay Day Better.

Agents of the Massachusetts bureau of labor find the tendency of employers to adopt a pay day in the middle of the week instead of Saturday has greatly reduced the number of absentees on account of drunkenness. It is found that much of the Saturday night drinking to excess has been due to the knowledge of a whole day intervening before the necessity of returning to work.

The Basis of Arbitration.

Considerable light has been thrown on the underlying principles of labor arbitration, or on the lack of principle shown in various efforts at arbitration, by a series of interviews with managers and union leaders in the Chicago stockyards which are presented in the Outlook by William Hard and Ernest Poole. The general manager of one of the big packing companies, when asked how he would fix a fair wage or prove that 18½ cents an hour is too high for unskilled labor, said that every morning at the gate there were hundreds of men willing to perform unskilled labor for even 15 cents an hour, a wage which is paid by the Illinois Steel company and the Harvester steel company. Consequently he urged that the union's demand for 18½ cents was "bucking against the law of supply and demand," but when asked if he would attempt to prove that decent living conditions were possible at less than 18½ cents an hour he said that an argument based on profits and living conditions would not be regarded as proper for an arbitration committee to consider. The labor leaders, on the other hand, who had acted on arbitration boards admitted that they had decided the question of wages in various cases not on any scientific principle of supply and demand or of cost of living, but merely on what was paid in other trades and in other cities. The writers say that arbitration cannot become a science until it deals squarely with all these questions—namely, supply and demand of labor, the immigrants' standard of living, cost of living, profits of proprietor and share in prosperity or depression.

RELIGIOUS

English Primate Here.

The Most Rev. Randall Davidson, archbishop of Canterbury, who arrived at New York Aug. 27, with his wife and several friends, proceeded at once to Quebec, Canada, where he took part in the services commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the English cathedral's dedication. To the reporters who met him on his arrival at New York the archbishop said that he had undertaken the journey in the hope of promoting unity in the work of his church in England and America and in combating the evils in both countries. After making some pastoral visits in Canada and receiving an honorary degree from the University of Toronto he was to make a tour of this country before the opening of the Episcopal convocation at Boston Oct. 1.

Kansas Church Combination.

A movement has been started by the Rev. Fred Grey, Congregationalist, at Stockton, Kan., to organize a federation of churches and Christian workers throughout the state of Kansas. Already a large number of ministers, representing various denominations, have agreed to subordinate creed in favor of a broad and liberal conception of Christianity. One of the chief aims is to supply smaller towns with an able minister and to prevent the overlapping and duplication of ministerial efforts. Mr. Grey is confident that all Kansas will embrace his plan and that the Christian churches of every state will follow suit.

French Bishop Submits.

Mgr. Geny, bishop of Laval, one of the prelates who refused to go to Rome, thus causing the rupture between France and the Vatican, has now gone in person to submit to the authority of the pope.

Hicks of Cambridge, Mass.; the hammer throw record of 108 feet 1 inch by John Flanagan of New York; the standing broad jump of 11 feet 4½ inches by Roy Ewry of New York.

In the race for the Futurity stakes, the richest prize of the American turf, at Sheepshead Bay Aug. 31 the greatest racing stables of the country captured every dollar of the big stakes, Herman B. Duray winning with the filly Artful, Sydney Paget second with Tradition and James R. Keene third with Sysonby.

Accidents.

Nine persons were killed and twenty-three injured in a head-on collision on the Grand Trunk railway near Richmond, Que., Aug. 31.

During the fifth event of the world's fair automobile contest at St. Louis, Aug. 28, Barney Oldfield lost control of his machine in a false start and, crashing through the outer fence of the course, instantly killed two persons, injured himself and wrecked two machines.

One hundred persons were burned to death or killed and 5,000 inhabitants rendered homeless by a fire which destroyed the town of Binan, Laguna province, Philippine Islands, Aug. 30. The property loss is $200,000.

Four persons are reported to have met death by the forest fires which are raging in British Columbia, and millions of dollars' worth of timber land has been burned.

By the capsizing of a ferryboat on the Kamien river, Lodz, Poland, Aug. 31, seventy persons are reported to have been drowned.

A Surprising Proposition.

To say that the writer was astounded this morning over the report of an agreement between the Andover Board of Public Works and the city of Lawrence to sell Andover water to Lawrence is putting it mildly. And the same is true of all citizens conferred with.

An inquiry to the chairman of the Board referred our reporter to the town counsel for the authority under which the Board is acting, and it has been impossible for the Townsman to learn much about the affair, save that which is told in the news report elsewhere. We do not wish to be hasty in criticizing this action of the Board, but we do not believe a dozen citizens in town, who know the true state of affairs in Lawrence, will for a minute approve the course taken. There are a few truths that are pertinent, along broad lines, whatever the phases of this particular case, and they are that the whole theory of public works in cities and towns is based upon the serving of the convenience and comfort of the particular city or town carrying them on. Andover's water supply is a monument to far sighted good judgment of twenty years ago. It is for Andover, and for Andover alone, and we can see no reason nor wisdom in going into the business of selling water for profit to other cities and towns.

If the Board of Public Works has been misled by any Lawrence talk of an "emergency", they should take pains to inform themselves as to Lawrence water supply history for the past four years. The "emergency" is just like that which befel the foolish virgins of the parable, with Andover being asked to furnish the oil for improvident Lawrence.

The Law's the Thing.

"One law for the rich, and another for the poor", how often we hear it, and sometimes we almost believe it. Then along comes a complaint that automobilists and bicyclists are law breakers, and all of a sudden we find that there is but one law for all. To be sure the automobilists are not free yet, but they'd better look out, for the police are on the war path and their first raid was a big one.

We haven't published their names because we think a great deal of them, but the wealthy, the noble, the prominent, and the most estimable were all represented in the list of bicyclists who paid generous fines during the past week, for bicycle riding on the sidewalk. And would you believe it, in this case there is a very general feeling that the umpire (that's the law) was rather tough in his decision, for two or three of the offenders were mere boys, and mighty nice boys too. They wouldn't commit a misdemeanor, knowingly, for anything in the world, and there is a deal of evidence that it was a pretty closely drawn offense in this case.

Now that the majesty of the (bicycle) law has been properly upheld, and the worst offenders have escaped as they so often do, let us all be more careful to do less of those things that offend our neighbor. There's room for all of us in the big broad road, be it the highway or the Golden Rule.

Playing the Game.

It isn't easy to "play the game" just right. To be fair to the other fellow and one's self at the same time is a mighty big job, and the few who succeed in it don't get half as much credit as they deserve. And yet it isn't nearly so creditable as the opposite is discreditable.

Just now considerable of the public mind, among the lovers of sport, is filled with discussion over the very unsatisfactory outcome of "playing the game" of baseball on Labor Day between two teams of local young men. We have cut out of the news report every suggestion of just who was at fault in the conduct at the game, and we are not going to discuss for an instant a single phase of this unsatisfactory contest save that which is suggested in the opening.

Here were two baseball teams enlisted to contest on the diamond for local supremacy in a glorious sport. They were mutually agreed upon the arbiter of all differences which might arise between them, and they began the game pledged to abide by whatever decision he might give. If the umpire thus chosen should be unfair in his decisions, or prove unfit for his work, the results would be the misfortune of the team that suffered, but would it justify a desertion of the fight? Assuming that the umpire was unfair, and it is very easy to cry fraud, was there justification for any individual of either team deserting his post?

It's mighty hard to "play the game" all through life. There's always an umpire, if it's only the great public, and woe betide the man who deserts the game because the decision is against him. It's all very well to cry that abuse must be resisted, but desertion is not the kind of resistance the world approves. The hero fights all the harder "right in the game", and then if he overcomes the abuse there is a double victory. And we should never forget that the game is a very long one; it doesn't end on the ball field or at the close of any single contest, it keeps on and on and the umpire's decisions are very often most trying.

WATER FOR LAWRENCE

Proposition from Andover Board of Public Works To Help Their Supply Is Accepted by Lawrence Government.

For some time past the City of Lawrence has been endeavoring to increase their water supply and suggestions from several citizens have been made, none of which have been deemed feasible. The last suggestion which seems to the water board and water works committee of Lawrence as most desirable is by obtaining water from this town or North Andover.

A meeting was held in Lawrence last evening when the subject was discussed thoroughly by the members of the water board, mayor and members of the board of aldermen and common council.

A communication from the local board of public works was read by the superintendent of the Lawrence water works which was as follows:

Dear Sir:—In reply to yours relating to supplying the city of Lawrence with water, the board of public works of Andover will be willing to furnish you not to exceed one-half million gallons per day, and reserving the right, when necessary for the benefit of Andover, to discontinue such supply, at the regular schedule rates as herewith handed to you, amended as follows:

After reading, 1,000,000 gals. $106.26
Next 9,000,000 630.00
Next 10,000,000 1000.00
Next 10,000,000 500.00
All over 30,000,000 at four cents per thousand, with the understanding that these be quarterly rates.

Yours,
JOHN E. SMITH.

The cost of connecting with the Andover main was figured on $850 and the cost of 50,000,000 gallons would be $2626.20. The town of North Andover figured at a rate of $50 per million gallons and the cost of connection would be $1250.

Superintendent Collins said that either supply would be acceptable but the North Andover pipes were troubled with electrical at the point near where the connections would be made and he recommended the Andover supply. He said that the water was pure lake water and was much better than their own at present.

It was unanimously voted to make connections with the town of Andover at an approximate cost of $850.

WEST PARISH.

A party of seventeen young people of the West Parish visited Concord, of this state, on Labor Day. They were conveyed there and back by Ammon Richardson in his barge. The day was spent by them in visiting the many places of historic and literary interest with which the old town abounds. They ate their lunch on a sunny slope facing "the old manse", were photographed about the statue of "the minute man", and lingered in the Sleepy Hollow Cemetery. The day was full of pleasure and interest. The company was congenial—not a crank on board—and the ride home was enlivened with story, song, and many a merry jest.

Miss Edith Abbott, who has been studying nursing at the Tewksbury State Hospital the past three years, has completed her course in a very satisfactory manner, and is now enjoying a well deserved rest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Abbott.

At a parish meeting, held Tuesday night, the Parish voted to sustain the vote of the church to extend a call to the Rev. J. Edgar Park to become the pastor of the West church.

A party of fourteen of the young people of the parish occupied a cottage at Hampton Beach from Saturday till Wednesday. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Sidney Phelps.

The Self Improvement society met last Tuesday at the home of Alvin Twiss. The subject of discussion was "The historical events of Andover."

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morrill spent a few days this week in Holliston, Mass., with Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Andrews, formerly of this place.

Miss Susie A. Cutler has returned to her home in Cambridge after a three weeks' visit with her uncle, Daniel Fitzpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper of Lowell, spent Sunday and Monday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Whittaker.

Fred Whittaker of Woonsocket, R. I., spent Labor Day with his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Whittaker.

Miss Marjorie Morrill is spending the week in Haverhill with her aunt, Mrs. William Davis.

Miss May Gould, of Watertown, spent a few days this week with Mrs. Sarah M. Wagstaff.

The Sunday School will resume its sessions Sunday, after summer vacation.

Miss Evelyn Hardy is visiting her uncle, Edward F. Hardy.

New Record Established.

A new record has been established by the Andover Steam Fire Engine company for getting water on a building. The trial was made at the regular practice on Wednesday night and the men can well feel proud of the showing which they made.

From the time the hose wagon left the engine house and arrived at the hydrant at the corner of Morton and Bartlett streets via Main and Morton streets, just two minutes had elapsed and in one minute more 600 feet of hose with a pipe had been laid. In one minute and a half more water was produced. This made the record four and one-half minutes.

The engine left the house shortly after the hose wagon and proceeded to the same hydrant via Park and Bartlett streets. The record for this piece of apparatus is also very gratifying to the fire laddies as the time which was made is among the records for call firemen. Six minutes after the time the engine left the house there were twenty pounds of steam and the engine pumping.

Watch Stolen.

Thomas Platt, the well known restaurant keeper, was relieved of a valuable watch and chain by a slick sneak thief some time Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Platt, who is employed during the day by J. E. Pitman as a carpenter, was working on the house being built by H. A. Ramsdell at the corner of Summer and Whittier streets. He had hung his vest, containing the watch and chain, in the building and was busy about the house all the afternoon.

On finishing his day's work Mr. Platt put on his vest and soon discovered that his valuables were missing. He remembered that two or three suspicious appearing characters were seen around the house, but did not think that anything would be stolen by them. He immediately notified Chief Fry, who is working on the case.

Mr. Platt values the chain very highly as it was a present from his mother on his 21st birthday. The watch was also given by his mother about two years ago.

Pleasant Fishing Party.

The thirtieth fishing party during the last thirty-four years conducted by Tom Bentley had a most enjoyable trip last Saturday. The party, comprising about thirty persons, left the square at 6.15 a. m., and reached Swampscott via Reading and Lynn. A gasoline launch and dory soon had the eager fishermen on board the sloop yacht, Letter D, Captain John Haley, and in a short time they were off for the fishing grounds. At the first stop the lines were lowered but the fish did not bite well and a change of location was made. In all the anchor was lowered four times.

There was very little sickness aboard and most of the party enjoyed the sail fully as much as the fishing, the weather being ideal.

At noon an excellent chowder was partaken of made from fish caught by the party.

The fishermen started back about five o'clock and arrived home shortly before nine.

The prize winners were as follows: Alexander Lindsay, $4 for the largest fish; William Gledhill, $3 for the most fish; J. E. Whiting, $1.50 for the smallest fish. William Gledhill held the honor of catching the smallest fish but could not take two prizes.

The following men were members of the party: Ralph Manning, William Gledhill, Joseph Pitman, William A. Allen, William S. Bentley, Alex. Lindsay, Marlan Wason, J. E. Whiting, Henry Hilton, J. Kent Hilton, Ira Buxton, David Whitman, Edward Manning, Jas. Grosvenor, Edward Dugan, Albah Wason, Jerry Sullivan, Chester Harnden, Claude Miner, Frank Williams, Harold Reed, George Carter, Louis Mears, Francis Snyder, Arthur Spurr, John Buchanan, Irving Murch, Joseph Best, Archie Whittemore and Tom Bentley.

Mr. Bentley will be pleased to conduct another party within a few weeks if the required number of persons can be secured.

WEDDINGS

MILLS-REMINGTON.

Last Thursday occurred the marriage of Miss Ella Everett Remington, daughter of Hon. William R. Remington, to Prof. Frank Smith Mills, who occupies the chair of geology in St. Lawrence university. The marriage occurred at high noon in the Universalist church, Canton, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The church was beautifully decorated with asparagus, and the pulpit platform was banked with flowers. The altar rail was covered with asparagus and sweet peas. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Almon P. Gunnison, president of St. Lawrence university, an uncle of the bride, assisted by the groom's brother, Rev. Charles Mills of Cleveland, O. Miss Luella Gunnison of Canton, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Miss Marie Balen of New York, was maid of honor. The best man was Edward C. Mills, of Boston, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederic Gunnison of Watertown, brother of the bride, Prof. R. D. Ford of St. Lawrence university, and James E. Johnson of Canton. Before the arrival of the wedding party at the church, Miss Ruth Kimball sang the wedding hymn from "The Rose Maiden" in a very charming manner. Mrs. E. C. Whitmer of Schenectady, presided at the organ and played the wedding march. The bride entered the church upon the arm of her father. The bride was dressed in white chiffon cloth, trimmed with chantilly lace, and a veil and orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of pink silk with mull lace trimming and a white hat with pink roses. The bridesmaid wore pink crepe de chine and a pink and white chiffon hat and like the maid of honor carried pink roses. The bride's mother wore a gown of black lace over white taffeta and the groom's mother black crepe de chine. The bride's gifts to her bridesmaid and maid of honor were gold hat pins, set with jade and pearls, and the groom's gifts to the ushers and best man were gold scarf pins in the form of a wish-bone. After the ceremony the wedding party returned to the residence of the bride's parents, where they enjoyed a wedding breakfast, shortly after which they were driven away in a carriage. The wedding trip will probably last about three weeks, after which they will be at home at 88 Main street in this village. The handsome colonial residence of the bride's parents on Main street presented a charming appearance today. The decorations there were similar and roses. The wedding gifts were probably of the most value ever bestowed upon a bride here. They presented a bewilderingly beautiful array of jewels, silver and cut glass. The popularity of the groom was testified to by two elegant gifts of silver and cut glass from the freshman class of the university and the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. There were a large number of guests from out of town, among whom were Mrs. and Miss Mills of Andover, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Mills and daughters of Boston, Rev. Charles Mills of Cleveland, O., Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Remington of New York, and Frederic Gunnison of New Rochelle. The bride has spent practically her entire life in Canton and is a most charming and accomplished young lady. She has a host of friends here whose best wishes go with her in her new relation. The groom has only resided a year in Canton, coming here from his home in Andover, Mass., at the opening of the university last year to take the chair of mineralogy made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Logan. He is a graduate of Cornell university, and has brought to the class room not only the lore of books but the riches gathered from wide travel and has filled the chair of geology in a manner most acceptable to the president and trustees of the university, as well as the students who have come under his instruction. —From the Watertown, N. Y. Daily Times.

CHURCHILL-PEARCE.

Dr. Donald Churchill, formerly of Andover, and oldest son of the late Professor John Wesley Churchill, and Miss Harriett Boss Pearce of Mansfield, Mass., were married at the home of the bride's parents in Mansfield, on Wednesday, September 8th, by Rev. W. M. McNair, pastor of the Mansfield Congregational church.

Miss Pearce is a granddaughter of the late Dutee J. Pearce, for many years Democratic Congressman from Newport, R. I.

After a short wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Churchill will be at home at 369 Broad street, Providence, R. I., where Dr. Churchill is a well known practicing physician.

BROWN-PRESCOTT.

The marriage of two of Andover's prominent young people took place at Exeter, N. H., on Wednesday evening, William Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Brown, and Miss Annie B. Prescott being the contracting parties.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ervine, at 14 Summer street, at 7:30 o'clock, in the presence of many relatives and friends. The pastor of the Baptist church tied the knot.

The bride was beautifully attired in white muslin trimmed with medallions, and was attended by Miss Amy Tuttle of Staten Island, N. Y. George A. B. Prescott, brother of the bride, was best man.

The happy couple received the congratulations of many well wishers after the ceremony, and later in the evening they started on a short wedding tour. They will be at home to friends at 14 Maple avenue after September 20.

Mrs. Brown were the recipients of numerous useful and ornamental presents.

SHERIDAN-GAGE.

Edwin E. Sheridan and Miss Bertha E. Gage were married Tuesday evening at Trinity Episcopal church, Haverhill, by the Rev. Donald Browne. The bride was given away by her brother, George V. Gage of East Candia, N. H. She was attended by her cousin, Mrs. William A. Savage, as matron of honor. Albert K. Sheridan, a brother of the groom, was best man.

Miss Gage is a niece of Ezra H. Valpey at whose home she lived while a student at Abbot Academy, and has many friends in Andover.

In "Her Marriage Vow," which will be presented for the first time in this city at the Colonial Theatre, Thursday matinee, September 15, the author is said to have harmoniously woven together a play of intense heart interest and containing many novelties as to plot and incident. The play abounds in thrilling situations calculated to arouse the enthusiasm of the audience, and strong climaxes that are admirably worked up. There is a strong comedy vein running throughout the piece, which is interwoven in such a manner as to relieve the strain caused by the more serious portions of the drama.

The scenes are laid in and around Boston, and the piece is a depiction of life among wage earners on railroads, and as such, wins the sympathy of the audience. The story is unfolded in a skillful manner, and treats of designing villainy plotting against honesty and virtue, successfully for a time, but recoiling upon the guilty ones in the end.

The presenting company has been carefully selected, and includes several well known players. Prices, 15 and 25c. Matinee every day.

FOR TOWN CHAMPIONSHIP

Athletics and Unions Defeat Ballardvale at Baseball — Latter Wins from West Lynn.

Andover A. A., 2; Ballardvale, 0.

The 500 or more spectators at the baseball game between the Andover Athletic association and Ballardvale on the P. A. campus Monday morning were treated to a disappointment owing to the action of the latter team.

The contest had been looked forward to by all the baseball enthusiasts of the town and everyone was aware that a hard tussle for supremacy would be waged. With this fact in view and the game coming as it did on a holiday one of the largest crowds ever seen at a local game watched the contest.

The game itself was a regrettable failure from the spectators' viewpoint, owing to the continued kicking of the visiting players, who were apparently dissatisfied with every decision of the umpire.

The climax, however, came in the first of the fifth inning. After Crowley had been retired, Nolan reached first on a base on balls. Stewart, the next batter, waited and allowed Nolan to steal. He took the opportunity and sprinted to second. Hennessey made a good throw but Bradley, the second baseman failed to touch the runner, according to the umpire who called Nolan safe and immediately the majority of the Ballardvale rooters rushed upon the field. Their captain said that he would not consent to continue the game unless the man was given out or the umpire removed. The local captain did not think that he would be justified in so doing and refused the request.

Umpire Mahoney then told the visitors' captain that five minutes would be given in which to start the game but the time limit expired with no prospects of a satisfactory agreement and he awarded the Andover team the victory by a score of 2 to 0 as the local team had made those runs prior to this inning.

The Game.

Andover batted first but in this inning no runs were scored, the local batters failing to connect with Eames who pitched good ball. The visitors also failed to score the sharp fielding and good twirling of Hayes, retiring the batters in order. Ballardvale did not score during their four innings at the bat.

In Andover's second inning two runs were scored which proved to be the only ones during the contest. Knipe succeeded in reaching first base, and Kydd, the next man up, forced him to second by being hit with a pitched ball. Reed took his place here as he was unable to run. A pretty single between short and second by Maloney would have filled the bases had not Reed forced Knipe off third. Moynihan struck out. Crowley proved the man for the situation, however, as he drove a hot grounder to W. Wheatley who fumbled the ball and when he recovered he threw the ball low to first. It was a poor throw and the ball went through the crowd, allowing Reed and Maloney to score. Crowley was left on third as the next man was retired. This ended the scoring and during the fifth inning the game ended as above.

Baseball Notes.

A. A. A. vs. Unions tomorrow.

Daniel Moynihan, captain of the Andover Athletic association, has been very unlucky this year, having received two quite painful bruises on his hands. The first was received while catching some weeks ago, and on Monday while batting, a swift ball hit him on the little finger of his right hand, cutting the inner side open and making a very painful wound.

The Andover Athletic association will have a fine diamond to play on next year.

The Andover Athletic association has had a very successful season this year, having won seven games, lost five and tied one.

Unions, 3; Ballardvale, 2.

Unions defeated Ballardvale on the Plains, Saturday afternoon, in the third game of the series, by the score of 3 to 2. It was a well played and hotly contested game. The main feature of the game was the steady and star pitching of Hilton, who pitched one of the best games seen in this vicinity for some time. He was well supported by Kelly. Saunders played a strong game, making three clean hits.

For Ballardvale, Drisko pitched good ball. A. Hennessey caught a fine game besides leading his side at the bat. The outfielding of J. Wheatley was first-class.

Ballardvale, 8; West Lynn, 2.

Ballardvale won a decisive victory over the West Lynn team on the Plains, Monday afternoon, by a score of 8 to 2. For Ballardvale, the pitching of both Drisko and Eames was a complete puzzle to the visitors. Hennessey caught a star game. The base running of Bradley was first-class. The batting of Dearborn was strong and clean. He led his side with three fine hits. Saunders played a brilliant game at third base, as did Whalen for West Lynn.

Transferred from Lawrence.

The Rev. P. J. A. Lynch, for the past few years assistant pastor at St. Lawrence's church, Lawrence, has been transferred to Hoosac Falls, N. Y., and he left for that city Wednesday.

Fr. Lynch has just returned from a two months' trip to Ireland, as he was given a leave of absence following the observance of his 25 years as a clergyman. At that time the parishioners of St. Lawrence's church raised a substantial purse and presented it to the popular priest. He was well liked in the parish and his departure will be regretted.

Fr. Lynch was formerly assistant pastor of St. Augustine's church and was well and favorably known here.

Phillips Academy Notes

Phillips Academy opens on Wednesday, September 21, for the one hundred and twenty-seventh year with entrance examinations. Recitations for the two lower classes begin on Thursday and for the two upper classes on Friday. At present the prospect for a school as large as that of last year seems good and it is possible that many students will return after the college examinations.

There has been little change in the school buildings or in the students' houses. One dormitory was burned down during the summer, but the students who occupied this will be accommodated in the Clement, the first floor of which has been remodelled into comfortable rooms. If this proves insufficient the Woods house, which was purchased recently by the trustees, will be converted into a dormitory.

There will be but one change in the faculty. Foster Stearns, of Boston, a graduate of Amherst, will take Mr. Bulfinch's place, the latter having gone abroad for a year's study. Mr. Stearns has been studying at Harvard for some time.

Some changes have been made in the various courses, perhaps the most important of which will be advanced German to meet the new Yale entrance requirements, and this will allow the substitution of German for Greek. Dr. Newton and Mr. Keep will have charge of this department.

In the Junior year a course in ancient history will be substituted for the old course in elementary geography. The course in physiography has been enlarged in the middle classes of the scientific department to meet the requirements of Harvard.

In the Junior Middle class a two hours' course in physiology and hygiene will be given, and this will be conducted by Dr. Page.

A slight change has been made in the time for beginning recitations. Formerly school opened at 8 o'clock, but this year the school will open at 8.10 and close at 12.10. This change will give societies and classes time to hold short meetings between chapel and recitation time.

Guild Notice.

The Stamp Saving at the Guild House is now open and ready for depositors, on Wednesday afternoons from 3 till 5 o'clock.

GOATS AND A NATION'S FATE.

(From the London Truth.)
The frontier between British India and Tibet traverses districts where there are mountain pastures and our main grievance was that certain Thibetan goats which were ignorant of the line of demarcation were in the habit of staying into British territory. What particular harm the goats did by browsing occasionally on British grass is not very clear. In any case, the damage could not have been considerable. In 1739 we went to war with Spain on account of the ear of the certain Jenkins, which, we asserted, had been cut off by some Spanish official, although it was contended that the ear was still attached to Jenkins' head. It has, however, been reserved to this century for this country to engage in a war that promises to be extensive, on account, professing, of a few wandering goats.

MEAT SAUCE OF COCOANUT AS MADE IN FAR CEYLON

In Ceylon a delicious sauce for cold meats is made from tomatoes and the cream of cocoanut milk. Take three tomatoes, large, ripe and firm, peel, cut in halves and take out the seeds and put on ice. Just before using chop them fine and season with half a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of cayenne and one teaspoonful of onion juice and a chopped green pepper.
The cocoanut milk is made by pouring a pint of boiling water over a freshly grated nut. Let it stand an hour, then press out all the milk with the hand. Set away in a bowl and a delicious cream will rise to the surface. Skim off this cream and turn over the tomato mixture. Just before serving add a dessert spoonful of lemon juice.

POLITICS and GOVERNMENT

General.

Hill's Farewell to Politics.

David B. Hill, for many years the leader of the New York state Democracy, twice governor of the state and United States senator for one term, caused the announcement to be made Aug. 29, his sixty-first birthday, that he would retire from political activity and leadership Jan. 1, 1905, no matter what the result of the present campaign might be either in the state or the nation. He would continue, however, his present labors for the Democratic cause during the pending presidential election. This announcement has been received with incredulity by the Republican press, but is generally accepted by Democrats, some of whom believe that it is done to relieve the Parker managers of the opposition arising from the reported intention of making Mr. Hill the head of the Parker cabinet.

David B. Hill.

La Follette For Secret Ballot.

In an article for Collier's on the Republican issue in Wisconsin Governor La Follette takes the ground that the right to make the ballot is as sacred as the right to cast it. He believes that men nominated and elected to office will serve the people if they are made accountable to the people by direct nomination under the Australian ballot. He says the contest for control of legislation in Wisconsin and throughout the country is the more dangerous because sought in the name of industrial progress and general prosperity.

Fairbanks in Vermont.

The Republican candidate for vice president made his first formal speech at White River Junction, Vt., Aug. 27, in the presence of a large gathering of people. It was near there that Mr. Fairbanks' father was born. The principal feature of the candidate's address was his warning of business disturbances similar to those following the panic of 1893 in the event of Democratic success this year.

Gossip of the Campaign.

At the Chicago Democratic headquarters it was said during the week that the numerous requests throughout Illinois for speeches by W. J. Bryan had caused the campaign managers to arrange a schedule for the Nebraskaan.

Representative Babcock as chairman of the Republican congressional committee at Washington in a newspaper interview said that the present campaign was the closest since 1898. He said his committee was waging the campaign chiefly on the protection of the business of the country.

The Democratic campaign in Massachusetts was opened at Cambridge with a big rally Aug. 27, during which Governor Garvin of Rhode Island, E. M. Shepard of New York, Charles S. Hamblin and other prominent Democrats made addresses. The keynote was reciprocity with Canada.

The Democratic national committee is circulating extensively throughout the country a leaflet containing a number of extracts from the various writings of President Roosevelt, so grouped and arranged as to show up opinions particularly objectionable from the Democratic point of view. The title and page accompanies each quotation. They include various opinions of past presidents, congressmen, laboring men, lynch law, commercial interests, etc.

The Socialist presidential candidate, Debs, has published in his party paper, the Appeal to Reason, a reply to the Cleveland article in the July McClure's dealing with the Chicago railroad strike in 1894. This is the article which Debs says was refused by McClure's. Its main feature is the citation of the report of the Carroll D. Wright strike commission appointed by President Cleveland, which appears to contradict in some important respects the statements made by Mr. Cleveland. Mr. Debs says that the Chicago strike is not yet settled and that its concluding pages are yet to be written.

Executive.

Race of Commerce Destroyers.

The United States cruiser Minneapolis reached Newport News, Va., Aug. 27, three minutes in advance of the cruiser Columbia, both of which had sailed from Newport, R. I., the day before on a speed test of triple screw boats, after being ten years in the service. The distance traveled was 520 knots, with an average speed of 20.4 knots and in twenty-eight hours and thirty minutes.

Battleship Louisiana Launched.

The first class battleship Louisiana was launched successfully at Newport News, Va., Aug. 27, in the presence of 25,000 spectators, being christened by Miss Juanita Lallande of New Orleans. The Louisiana is 450 feet long by 76 feet and 10 inches wide and has 18,000 tons displacement. Her armament will be the most powerful ever on an American warship. It will have five inch guns in two turrets, eight eight-inch and twelve seven-inch besides a large secondary battery of rapid fire rifles, small pieces and four submerged torpedo tubes.

Souvenir Coins For the Fair.

Twenty-five thousand gold dollars have been minted at Philadelphia to be used as souvenirs of the Lewis and Clarke expedition having a profile of the explorers on either side. The world's fair management expects to sell the coins to collectors and others at a nice profit.

Stopping "Sick Leave" Evil.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture Moore, who is head of the weather bureau, has caused quite a sensation in departmental life at Washington by taking the ground that an employee who has thirty days vacation with pay each year and then takes advantage of thirty days more absence under the sick leave rule is not well enough to perform the duties of responsible positions satisfactorily. By transferring a number of such to smaller salaried positions he has greatly decreased the number of applicants for sick leave.

Legal and Criminal.

Blue Law Riot at Pittsburgh.

The recent efforts of the Sabbath observance association at Pittsburgh to enforce the blue laws of 1794, which prohibit the sale on Sunday of ice, soda, candy, cigars and other "luxuries," resulted in riot and bloodshed when a mob attacked the association's detectives. Several persons were injured, and one man, Knox, an ice wagon driver, was shot and killed by Detective N. Starkey.

Connecticut's Murder Farm.

Gershon B. Marx, an eighty-year-old farmer of Norwich county, Conn., who has been in jail since last spring charged with the murder of two farm hands whose bodies were found buried on his land, is now accused of the killing of a boy and a Jewish peddler who disappeared about two years ago. The authorities are searching for the bodies on Marx's farm. The motive for the crime is thought to be an insane desire to escape paying money to his employees. Marx's wife is held as witness for the state.

2,500 Druggists Guilty.

As the result of a war waged by Isaac Platt against the National Association of Retail Druggists of Chicago, 2,500 retail druggists in the United States, members of the association, were declared guilty of contempt of court by Judge Dunne and the association fined $2,000. Platt secured an injunction in 1902 to restrain the association from interfering with the securing of supplies by himself, he having incurred the association's displeasure by refusing to join it.

Foreign.

Hidden Boer Treasure Found.

A relative of General Kemp, the Boer commander, is said to have located in the mountainous district of Spelonken, northern Transvaal, the $1,250,000 treasure which was removed from Pretoria at the time President Kruger fled before the advent of the British conqueror. Half of the treasure is to go to the present British government of the Transvaal. Four different expeditions had tried to find the treasure along the South African coast, where it was supposed to have been hidden.

Belgian Princess Flees.

Princess Louise of Coburg, eldest daughter of the king of Belgium, whose relations with Matassich-Keglevitch of the Austrian army caused a scandal seven years ago and who has been kept under strict watch since, disappeared mysteriously and romantically from a hotel at Bad Elster, Germany, Aug. 31. Ladders and an automobile were made use of, and it is supposed the princess fled in company with Matassich-Keglevitch.

Canada Takes Foreign Rails.

The government at Ottawa has put into effect the tariff of $7 a ton on steel rails as authorized by the act of 1903. A rail mill is now in successful operation at Sault Ste. Marie, thus enabling Canada to produce her own rails.

Notes.

It was reported last week that the Tibetans had yielded terms satisfactory to the British mission and that the latter would leave Lassa earlier than anticipated.

A renewal of anti-Semitic excesses in Bessarabia, Russia, was reported through private sources at Berlin. Many Jews had been killed or wounded. Strong military measures were taken to restore order.

The czar has issued a decree summoning the estates of Finland to convene at Helsingfors Dec. 6 next. Under the same order the next session of the Finnish diet will be held in 1907. Professor Jenks of Cornell university, who was delegated by the United States to confer with the Chinese authorities regarding the introduction of the gold standard in that country, has left Peking to return to America.

SCIENTIFIC

Germany's Hay Fever Expert Here.

Professor W. P. Dunbar, the American born scientist in the employ of the German government who discovered a serum treatment for hay fever, has come to this country to take charge of the German hay fever exhibit at the world's fair. He says that the disease is caused by the chemical action of certain kinds of plant pollen. In Europe it is the pollen of rye grass that causes most of the trouble, while in this country it is goldenrod and ragweed. He finds that the pollen of these plants contains minute quantities of albuminous poison. He estimates that there is enough of this substance in one grain of rye grass pollen to infect 4,800 hay fever patients. Only certain persons are subject to the infection, due to some nervous connection with brain fatigue.

Comet Medal to Brooks.

The Astronomical Society of the Pacific has awarded its prize medal to Dr. William H. Brooks, director of the Smith observatory at Hobart college, for his discovery of the Brooks comet of 1904. This was the twenty-fourth comet discovered by Dr. Brooks.

New Test For Old Eggs.

A new but extremely simple method for testing the age of eggs, reports Consul General Guenther from Frankfurt, Germany, is based upon the fact that the air chamber in the large end of the egg increases with age. It is found that a fresh egg placed in a saturated solution of common salt tends to float in a horizontal position, but the large end gradually rises toward the vertical position as time passes, so that an egg eight days old floats at an angle of forty-five degrees, one fourteen days old at sixty degrees, one three weeks old at seventy-five degrees, while an egg more than a month old floats vertically upon the pointed end.

Nearest Star Located.

A bulletin just issued by Lick observatory, University of California, giving the results of the recent astronomical work at Mount Hamilton, says the distance to the nearest star, Alpha Centauri, has been determined spectroscopically. The result is in harmony with observations by means of the ordinary telescope, to the effect that light, traveling 186,000 miles a second, requires four and a quarter years to reach us from that star.

Half Million in Battle at Liaoyang

Early on the morning of Aug. 31 Field Marshal Oyama gave the command which sent the whole Japanese front, comprising the armies of Kuroki, Oku and Nodzu, to the number of 250,000 men, forward against the main body of the Russians under General Kuropatkin entrenched just south and east of the walled city of Liaoyang in Manchuria. The Russians were believed to number over 200,000, with many thousands more supporting their line of retreat.

Thus the greatest battle of modern times, in point of men engaged and guns in action, and one of the greatest in all history was begun—a battle on the result of which might hinge the whole struggle between Japan and Russia. Kuropatkin's army lay with its center south of the city, and its flanks resting on the river Taitse, running east and west.

During the week preceding the Japanese armies had been steadily engaging the Russian outposts in a series of skirmishes, and driving them in until by the use of war balloons the Japanese could locate the intrenchments and batteries of the Russians. More than 1,000 Japanese guns searched the Russian line for many hours, while covering the repeated advances of the infantry and cavalry. General Oku attacked on the Russian right, Nodzu on the center and Kuroki began a vigorous flanking movement of Kuropatkin's left. The Russian army was believed to be almost completely surrounded by the Japanese after two days of fighting in which more than 30,000 men were reported to have fallen. At many points the Japanese were repulsed by the Russian bayonets with frightful slaughter. From the walls and house tops of the old Chinese city the noncombatants watched anxiously from day to day the progress of this great battle. Japanese reinforcements were coming up from Newchwang, and the Russians were reported to have begun a general retreat. Kuroki's columns were threatening Mukden.

Mrs. Weisslitz, Buffalo, N. Y., cured of kidney trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Of all the diseases known with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless prompt and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives. Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave careful study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—made sure that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was certain to control that dreaded disease, woman's kidney troubles.

Read What Mrs. Weisslitz Says.
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For two years my life was simply a burden. I suffered so with female troubles, and pains across my back and loins. The doctor told me that I had kidney troubles and prescribed for me. For three months I took his medicine, but grew steadily worse. My husband then advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought home a bottle. It is the greatest blessing ever brought to our home. Within three months I was a changed woman. My pain had disappeared, my complexion became clear, my eyes bright, and my entire system in good shape."—MRS. PAULA WEISSLITZ, 176 Seneca St., Buffalo, N. Y.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.
